Recognition: D. School Board Recognition Week - October 16, 2023 - October 20, 2023

Dr. Farrelly thanked the community for joining as the district celebrates and honors the esteemed Board of Education. She commenced her presentation by recognizing the incredible work and dedication of the Board members. The Board is composed of individuals who go above and beyond for the West Babylon students, staff, faculty and the community. The district is truly fortunate to have trustees who not only go above and beyond their duties but also genuinely care about every aspect of the school district. Their commitment and dedication to the students and their education is truly commendable. They work tirelessly to ensure that the schools provide the best possible learning environment for the children. Their role as elected officials is not an easy one. As we all know, they often face numerous challenges and make difficult policy decisions that impact our schools. Yet, they approach their responsibilities with integrity, compassion, knowledge of their legal obligations and a genuine desire to make the right decision for our school district. Dr. Farrelly continued by expressing deepest gratitude on behalf of herself and the district for their time, dedication, and unwavering commitment to the school district. For spending countless hours reviewing policies, attending meetings, reviewing Board meeting notes, agendas, letters, emails and reports. For actively engaging and listening to countless presentations - on every aspect of the school district to ensure that the district is well-informed before making a Board decision. She acknowledged and thanked them for the sacrifices they make, often juggling their personal and professional lives to fulfill their duties as Board members and put the needs of the school district front and center. She is grateful for their leadership, their guidance, their commitment and their support in her as their chief executive officer. On behalf of the entire school district, she closed the report with a heartfelt thank you for their tireless efforts and unwavering dedication. She thanked the audience again for joining the district in celebrating and honoring the district's incredible Board of Education.

Dr. Farrelly indicated that each of the trustee's would be receiving Certificates of Appreciation on behalf of Western Suffolk BOCES. Ms. Peggy Allar, Legislative Aide congratulated and presented the Board with a Proclamation on behalf of Presiding Officer Kevin McCaffrey. She extended his congratulations and thanked the Board for all they do for the community and especially the students. Additionally, citations were presented to the Board on behalf of New York Assemblywoman Kimberly Jean-Pierre. PTA Representative Ms. Margaret Barret, Mr. Stephen O'Leary, President of the WBAA and Mr. Robert Dell'Isolla, President of the WBTA, all extended their appreciation and congratulations to the Board of Education on their commitment to the West Babylon School District. Mr. William Doran, SHS Music Chairperson, thanked the Board of Education for their support of the music department. Mr. Doran introduced the district's High School Marching Band who performed musical pieces. Ms. Dana Meadows, SHS Director of Bands, was also in attendance. After the band's performance, Dr. Farrelly thanked and congratulated them for their outstanding performance. Lastly, Mrs. Lucy Campasano addressed and thanked the band on her behalf and on Board's behalf for performing.

Dr. Farrelly pointed out all the artwork display boards provided by Ms. Caitlin Alfano, K-8 Art Chairperson, Mrs. Erin Bodolai, 9-12 SHS Art Chairperson. She also thanked Mr. Doran, Ms. Meadow, the SHS Marching band for performing, all those in attendance; as well as the Administrators Association and PTA for catering dinner and desserts for the Board. She invited all attendees for cake.
